This is for informational purposes. A copy of this mailing was mailed to your customer. No action is necessary.

These are your temporary travel cards. A copy of this card should be printed and provided to your employees who travel outside the country of their permanent workplace for the purpose of conducting your business. A more permanent card will arrive under separate cover. This is not an insurance card. The purpose of this card is to provide contact information for the third-party provider that your employees can call when in need of medical or personal assistance services provided under your Global Executive Support Services Agreement. You will receive more copies of these cards with your renewal policy.
